

2008 Celebration of Hoosier Women Artists

Office of the Lieutenant Governor of Indiana

To celebrate Women's History Month, Lt. Governor Becky Skillman wishes to acknowledge the contribution Hoosier women artists have made to our state. Women artists from Indiana are invited to submit their original artwork for consideration. In March, winning artists will be invited to hang their work in the Lt. Governor's office, where it will be on display for a period of up to one year.

Requirements:

- Only one entry per artist or person will be considered
- Wall art only
- No photographs or 3-D artwork
- Maximum dimensions: 42"x60"
- Maximum weight: 60 lbs
- Must be installation ready, including frame and hanging wires

Application requirements:

- Completed art release form (can be submitted electronically)
- o Electronic image of artwork, submitted via e-mail or CD
 - CD will not be returned unless accompanied by a selfaddressed stamped envelope
- Actual artwork should not be submitted. It will be the artist's responsibility to pick up materials if submitted.

Artists will be notified of their status after February 15, 2008. Winning artwork will be displayed in March 2008 (date TBD). Late entries will not be considered.
